Critic's Corner

We all know that Paul Sander is brilliant so to see him play an idiot savant was a little hard to swallow at first. But his performance was compelling and convincing. Matt Clancy was ok. He was much better in The Big Lebowski. The dude abides.

Critic's Corner

I'd like to review this movie and tell you what I think but this helmet is about 3 sizes too small and it's squeezing all the thoughts out of my brain. Also, since the original movie was a true story about World War II it scares the bejeebers out of me to say something funny or irreverant.

Critic's Corner

I've worked with Chris Ferguson for many years now but had no idea that he was so light on his feet. He usually shuffles around the warehouse like he's got lead in his shoes. A movie about the Ultra-Grate Lifter is daring to say the least but, somehow they pulled it off. Ha! Get it?!

An ancient 55-gallon drum that comes back to life? Seriously? That could totally happen! I bet this movie is based on a true story! I really believe it! But then again, I sometimes wrap my arms and head in toilet paper.

Matt Shaw was AMAZING as Spilladdin! Well, let's be honest, he's AMAZING in EVERYTHING! He stole the show! The supporting cast was pretty good but he totally could've done it without them. Mario Cruz as the genie was annoying. Seemed like he was always hovering around Matt.

Spill Pallets have always been near and dear to my heart. When I was a young girl I had a poster of a P2 on the wall above my bed. So it's tough to not be biased about this movie. It was the greatest, most amazing thing I've ever had my eyes on. Seriously.

Sam Bates is a badass and has been my personal hero since I met him. I usually abhor violence but when Slick is spreading Archaea all over the place and taking out oil, I couldn't help but cheer. Lots of dead microbes in the end though so leave the young ones at home.

This cast is perfect to play a group of unsung heros that rescue the world because that's EXACTLY what they do in real life! At least that's what they tell me. This movie is action-packed from the opening scene to the ending credits! Fun for the entire family. This make-up will come off right? They told me it would come off!

Critic's Corner
 An ancient 55-gallon drum that comes back to life? Serious-ly? That could totally happen! I bet this movie is based on a true story! I really believe it! But then again, I sometimes wag my arms and head in toilet paper.
